MORE THAN A DREAM.
Live up to the highest that's in you;
Put love and your best self into your work;
And follow them on to the goal.
After the path of success is clear,
The temples of happiness gleam;
They stand as a promise forever.
That Heaven is more than a dream.

We fall in the moments of weakness,
Hurt down by the passion for sin;
And the story of our life is a struggle
Against the temptations of the world,
And the temptations of the flesh.
Must cover and strike from the light
That dwells from the throne of the right.
And shows us the path to the right.

I know not what creeds we should cherish,
Or if they may all be astray;
I only know that I am a mortal,
That nothing is taken away
From me when I die.
How much of our little lives
Move on through a cycle of lives.

I know not the kingdom immortal,
Yet feel its inward soul;
That death's not a wall, but a portal,
Through which the soul's infinite soul
Knows not the glory immortal,
Nor feels the hope's infinite soul,
And grows in the sunlight of God.

I know not the realm where my spirit
Equivalent me I came into this world,
Yet know in my heart I inherit
A portion of the earth;
And by some interior vision,
Beyond the dark river, I see
The hills of a country which
I'll tread in the vision of the world.

I know with the wisdom of Solomon
The fruits that we gather tomorrow
Are never on earth's soil;
Life's page we have blotted and checked
No power on earth can restore;
We write an indelible record
To blight or to bless forever.

With voices serene and tender
With light that is golden in spirit;
With truth that is golden in spirit;
The veil of the senses is lifted,
And the soul's vision is clear;
And Love, through the portals of Heaven,
Glenns the light of the world.

The Court of Inquiry appointed by the Conference at Ashland, and which probed the charges to the bottom, was composed of F. C. Pillsbury, chairman, Thomas Hanford, D. F. Kerr, J. S. Taylor and T. B. Stratton, the latter of this city.

The witnesses were Revs. Cyrus Riddle, R. R. Wilburn, R. L. Watkins, A. Boring, J. W. Zimmerman, E. L. Shepard, Prof. F. S. Alley and N. H. Grey.

The rivers above continue to fall, and unless there's rain pretty soon the steamers will have the river to themselves.

It's an old but true marine saying: "Any fool can run a boat and lose money. It takes a boatman to run one and make it."

The towboat W. W. O'Neil, which was taking thirty coalboats from Baton Rouge to New Orleans, stuck her fleet on a bar between the two points and left three barges there.

The Avian has gone to Parkersburg to be lengthened. The boat's hull will be cut in two, just forward of her smokestacks, and thirty-three feet will be added, from the smokestacks forward to the bow of the boat. This will give the steamer a much larger carrying capacity. As soon as the addition is made the steamer will proceed to the Tennessee, where the vessel will again enter the Paducah and Chattanooga trade.

The Maraden Cellulose Company and the Louisville and Evansville Packet Company were cut off Owensboro Wednesday for $20,000 by John A. Barnes for the drowning of his daughter Clara on the night of July 12. Miss Barnes was drowned in attempting to get off the Fawn, one of the Maraden boats, as it was returning from an excursion. It is charged that the Tarascon struck the barge upon which she was attempting to alight.

When the Filipinos are being governed by the same laws that govern every citizen of the United States, doesn't Mr. Bryan's cry of "Liberty for the Filipinos" savor a trifle of demagoguery?

Those who favor clearer politics and purer elections in Mason county have a chance now to begin the practice of their professions by voting for Squire C. W. Williams for County Judge. Read his card of acceptance printed elsewhere in today's Leader; and if you are sincere in your desire to do away with whisky and money in corrupting the ballots, give him your vote; otherwise, forever hereafter hold your peace.

"Wonder if the Hon. Charles Bronston is training for the Presidency on the Colossus ticket?" The above was not written by an inmate of the Lexington Insane Asylum, as one might infer, but by the Editor of THE MAYSVILLE LEADER. —Bourbon News.

Neither was the second paragraph above written by an inmate of an Insane Asylum; simply by one who ought to be.

For about two and one-half years CARL SCHURZ, EDWARD ATKINSON, EDWIN BURRITT SMITH, HENRY WADE ROGERS and a few score others of their type have continually applied to President McKinley such epithets as "Emperor," "despot," "tyrant" and "butcher." In speeches, in pamphlets, in the public press, by every method of influencing the minds of men, they have sedulously inculcated the idea that WILLIAM McKINLEY's conduct proved him a wretch unfit to be in office.

This campaign, says The Inter-Ocean, carried on in the violent language used by Russian Nihilists against the Czar, has not been waged by street-corner loafers. It has been and still is waged by our most eminently "respectable" citizens. It has been aided not only by newspapers in Chicago and elsewhere whose Editors make merchandise of their unscrupulousness, but also by journals which assume to represent the highest ideals of civilization.

Many sensible men have been wont to laugh at their ravings. To such men the spirit that led J. LAVERGNE LACROIX to promulgate falsehoods and thus attempt to infuriate the people against the President and his Administration has seemed a contemptible but harmless form of lunacy. But while sensible men were simply disgusted, there doubtless were others into whose minds the constant dropping of these slanders wore the belief that WILLIAM McKINLEY was the tyrant and oppressor that the anti-imperialists painted him. In view of the tragedy at Buffalo it is timely to reflect on these things.

When gentlemen in frock coats and silk hats, occupying stations of eminence and consideration, deliberately characterize the President of the United States as a "tyrant" and "butcher," as a miscreant to be despised and hated, it is surprising that some narrow-brained man, already prone by nature to violence, should go out to slay the President!

When the infamous crime at Buffalo is sifted to the bottom, when all the facts and motives are considered, we believe that these circumstances will receive due weight, and that the verdict of history will point to CARL SCHURZ, EDWARD ATKINSON, EDWIN BURRITT SMITH, HENRY WADE ROGERS and their like as no less responsible than KRAPOTKIN and PARSONS and SPIES and MOSTER for the black crime.

THE "JUDGE'S" WAY.

Judge Jim Cantrill promises to vote against every Republican measure that comes up if he can get to the Senate. That is the Judge's way, and in the Gobel murder cases he overruled every objection raised by the defense attorneys or a little sooner it was made; in fact, those were such "kooner" trials that the Court of Appeals had to order new trials at great expense to the Commonwealth. But Cantrill isn't one, two, three in the field of four, for there are others quite as rank and a deal smarter Gobelites than he is.

GARFIELD'S WORDS RECALLED.

I received a letter from a Mr. Hudson of Detroit, which expressed a fear that General Garfield was in serious danger of assassination, giving particulars. I sent it at once to Garfield, and received from him the following answer, very significant in view of the tragedy that occurred the following summer: "MEXICO, O., November 16, 1880. "My friend, I have read the letter of Mr. Hudson and I am glad to hear that you are so anxious to do good. I do not think there is any serious danger in the direction to which he refers. Though I am receiving what I suppose to be the usual threats from the press, I am not at all alarmed. I expect to go to Washington before long to look after the household affairs, and I shall hope to see you there. With kind regards, I am, very truly yours, J. A. GARFIELD. "Hon. John Sherman, Washington, D. C."

'SQUIRE WILLIAMS ACCEPTS.

To the Mason County Republican Convention, assembled at the city of Maysville, Ky., September 2, 1900: First, I thank you for the confidence expressed in me by the nomination for County Judge, which came to me unsought and without my knowledge.

In accepting the nomination, you must allow me to say it will be impossible for me to make a canvass of the county, and I propose not to use money or strong drink in this canvass.

I hold that we should get back to the time-honored principles of our forefathers. The elective franchise should be held, not degraded. Having been a member of your Fiscal Court continuously for more than a quarter of a century, and feeling that the condition of your county is familiar to me, I elected all the promise I can make is an economical administration of affairs and justice to the whole people, in whom I shall trust for my election.

The first thing, in my judgment, is taking care of the infirm of the county. Second, your roads, which we have now upon a sound financial basis.

Lastly, our bonded debt, which should annually be provided for and reduced so as not to oppress the taxpayers. Respectfully, C. W. WILLIAMS.

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only sustain a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, it is inefficient if it is digested or assimilated. You must prepare for the appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the famous medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses induce indigestion, stimulate the liver to healthy action, purify the blood, and make you feel vigorous and vigorous. You can get G. A. G. Green's reliable medicine at Dr. Jas. Wood & Son's, East Green's special Agents.

MAYSVILLE'S CHURCHES

WHERE RELIGIOUS EXERCISES WILL BE HELD SUNDAY.

Among small children, scald head and similar itching skin diseases are most prevalent, and the worst feature is that these ailments, which are apparently trivial at first almost invariably develop into chronic eczema if neglected.

There is but one treatment that physicians are unanimous in recommending for scald heads and eczema, and that is Dr. Chase's Ointment. It promptly stops the distressing itching which accompanies these diseases and positively produces a thorough and complete cure.

For three years I have been troubled by an intense itching on my body. So terrible was it at times that I could get no rest night or day. I tried all kinds of ointments and blood purifiers, but could get no relief. Mr. H. A. Nicola of 375 Division Street, Buffalo, N. Y., sent me a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. A few applications stopped the itching and I have felt nothing since."

Baby Eczema.

Mr. F. S. Rose, of 153 Fifth Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Our baby boy suffered for some time with that wretched eczema, and we were unable to do anything to relieve him. A few applications of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment stopped the itching and he has been free of it since. A bright, natural skin now takes their place."

The most costly state funeral which has ever taken place was perhaps that of Alexander the Great. A round million was spent in laying Alexander to rest. The body was placed in a coffin of gold, filled with costly aromatics, and a diadem was placed on the head. The funeral car was embellished with ornaments of pure gold and its weight was so great that it took eighty-four oxen more than a year to convey it from Babylon to Syria.

The most costly state funeral which has ever taken place was perhaps that of Alexander the Great. A round million was spent in laying Alexander to rest. The body was placed in a coffin of gold, filled with costly aromatics, and a diadem was placed on the head. The funeral car was embellished with ornaments of pure gold and its weight was so great that it took eighty-four oxen more than a year to convey it from Babylon to Syria.

THE KUKLUX GANG.

Placed on Trial at Pineville for a Number of Crimes, Murder, Highway Robbery, Etc.

Pineville, Ky., Sept. 28.—The kuklux gang of outlaws which were captured in Letcher county, a few days ago, and brought to this place, are now on trial for a number of crimes, such as murder, highway robbery and attempting to wreck trains.

The trial of this gang was transferred to this place from Whitesburg, Ky., the county seat of Letcher county, on an application of the counsel for the defendants. This measure was taken owing to the intense feeling against the outlaws in that county. There are 13 in the gang to be tried, and the first one called was that of Mena, Wright. This kuklux gang is a branch of the original Ku Klux and Wright factions, and has been operating in Letcher county and Bell county for several years. Their last crime was the murdering of a woman named Big Wilson in Letcher county. The last and 14th member of this gang, Morgan Reynolds, is still at large. He is the leader of the gang, and defies officers to take him. Constables are bringing in witnesses for the Commonwealth.

SHORTAGE OF COAL

Rr. Adm. Schley Said He Could Not Go to Santiago For That Reason.

HE WAS ORDERED TO PROCEED THERE.

Schley Was Told That Adm. Sampson Expected the Flying Squadron to Leave Cienfuegos Instantly.

The Commodore Expressed the Belief That the Spaniards Were in Cienfuegos, As He Had Heard Some Firing.

Washington, Sept. 28.—In the Schley court of inquiry a letter was presented from Rr. Adm. Sampson, asking to be represented in the court by counsel, but the court refused to hear the letter, on the ground that "the court does not at this time regard you as a party to the case." The principal witnesses of the day were Lieut. John Hood, who commanded the dispatch boat The Hawk during the Spanish war, and Capt. Bowman H. McCalla, who was in command of the Marlborough. The testimony of both these officers dealt with the delivery of dispatches from Adm. Sampson to Commodore Schley, and both related the same with the latter. Capt. McCalla gave in detail his part in arranging a code of signals with the Cuban insurgents, and his communication with them near Cienfuegos on May 24, 1898, when it was learned definitely that Cervera's fleet was not in the harbor.

Capt. McCalla expressed the opinion that coaling was feasible off Santiago at the time Schley began his retrograde movement.

Lieut. John Hood said that on May 23 he had delivered dispatches from Adm. Sampson to Adm. Schley when the latter was at Cienfuegos. In response to a request from the judge advocate, Lieut. Hood related the conversation he had had with Adm. Schley after delivering the dispatches, saying that he (the witness) had told the admiral that it was Adm. Sampson's wish that the flying squadron should proceed immediately to Cienfuegos, as his information was very positive. Commodore Schley read the dispatches and then turning to

Half a Coal Supply.

I told Commodore Schley that the order was to leave the instant I arrived. "Commodore Schley then said, in nearly these words: 'I am not at all satisfied that there is any coal in Cienfuegos. Besides my ships all want coal; that the Massachusetts, Texas and the Brooklyn wanted so much coal that they were ordered to leave the instant I arrived. I refuse Capt. Sampson had sent him down the town with only half a coal supply, so that he could not go anywhere but to the Spanish ships, which ship down there only half filled with coal.' I told Commodore Schley that I had passed a collier conveyed by a schooner, and that I was only half full that morning and it would certainly be there with at least four or five thousand tons of coal within two or three days." Commodore Schley then, on the belief of the Spaniards being in Cienfuegos, and stated that he had heard some firing about 40 miles from port, which he took to be the Spanish ships. Commodore Schley then said to me: "Capt. Sampson does not understand. He is not on the spot, and can't judge." I also informed Commodore Schley that they certainly expected the squadron to leave immediately, and that I had verbal orders from the commodore-in-chief which did not appear in my written orders to remain with the Hawk alone at Cienfuegos after the squadron had left, and conduct a blockade for two or three days, or as long as my coal supply lasted.

KEYS WILL.

Judge Wm. R. Day and Secretary Cortelyou Selected as Administrators by the Widow.

THE DOCUMENT FILED FOR PROBATE.

All the Real Estate and Income Bequeathed to His Wife During Her Natural Life.

Whatever Remains After the Widow's Death Goes to His Brother and Sisters, Share and Share Alike.

Canton, O., Sept. 28.—Secretary Cortelyou came here to assist Mrs. McKinley in disposing of matters connected with the late president's estate. The trying task of settling Mr. McKinley's will was undertaken by the faithful secretary. Mrs. McKinley made a heroic effort to bear up, and successfully did so, although the ordeal was difficult for her. All legal formalities necessary for her to subscribe to were disposed of. Judge Day and Secretary Cortelyou then went to the office of the probate judge and offered the will of President McKinley for probate. They carried with them the following: "I, Ida S. McKinley, widow of William R. McKinley, deceased, hereby declare the administration of his estate, and recommend the appointment of William R. Day and George B. Cortelyou as administrators with the will annexed."

This recommendation bears the date of September 27, 1901.

Following is the text of President McKinley's will:

"Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.—I, the undersigned, William McKinley, do hereby declare that the following is my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills.

"To my beloved wife, Ida S. McKinley, I bequeath my entire real estate wherever situated, and the income from any personal property of which I may be possessed at death, during her natural life, and the residue of my estate to my brother and sisters, share and share alike.

"I make the following charge upon all my property, both real and personal: To pay my mother during her life $1,000 a year, and at her death said sum to be paid to my sister Helen McKinley. If the income from my property be insufficient to keep my wife in good health, then I direct that such of my property be sold so as to make a sum adequate for both purposes. Whatever property remains at the death of my wife I give to my brother and sisters, share and share alike. My chief concern is that my wife should be comfortable and happy.

"Witness my hand and seal, this 22d day of October, 1897, to my last will and testament, made at the city of Washington, District of Columbia. (Seal.) "WILLIAM McKINLEY."

"The foregoing will was witnessed by us this 22d day of October, 1897, at the request of the testator, and his name signed thereto in our presence, and our signatures hereto in his presence.

"W. R. CORTLEYOU, Secretary.

"CHARLES E. LIEFFER, Jr., Notary Public.

Value of the Estate.

It is given out on authority that the McKinley estate will total $225,000 to $250,000, including life insurance of $67,000. Aside from the $67,000 mentioned, the estate consists of real estate here and contiguous to Canton, and of deposits in Washington banks.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock has been fixed by the probate court for a hearing prior to probating the will. Then, it is expected, Secretary Cortelyou and Judge Day will be finally appointed administrators of the estate with will annexed, and will give bond.

Secretary Cortelyou made the necessary affidavit as to the genuineness of the signature of the president and his own. Mr. Lieffer read the will Saturday, and made affidavit as to his signature, and to having seen the president attach his name to the document. The will is in the president's own handwriting, and is an executive mansion letter paper.

OVER AN EMBANKMENT.

Three Perhaps Fatally Injured and Sixteen Seriously Hurt in a Week Near Council Bluffs.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 28.—The through passenger train from St. Louis to Omaha on the Wabash was wrecked seven miles from Council Bluffs, the entire train, consisting of mail and baggage cars, two day coaches, a chair car and Pullman, rolled down a 15-foot embankment and came to rest on the track. The engine stopped with the forward trucks on the edge of the bridge over Indian creek. The train carried nearly a hundred passengers, and it seems almost a miracle that none were killed. There were perhaps fatally injured, 16 seriously hurt, and a score of others received minor bruises. A score of others were more or less injured, some having gashes caused by glass and broken steel. Some were taken to hospitals and others to the Kell hotel in Council Bluffs and a number were brought to this city.

KIRKLAND B. ARMOUR.

The President of the Armour Interests in Kansas City Dies of Bright's Disease.

Kansas City, Sept. 28.—Kirkland B. Armour died at his residence here. Mr. Armour suffered with Bright's disease and a weak heart, and had been sinking gradually for three days. He had been ill for two years, and had vainly sought improvement at various health resorts in the east and west.

Kirkland B. Armour was born at Stockbridge, N. Y., in 1854. He was the son of Andrew Watson Armour, who was for many years the president of the Armour interests in Kansas City, and entered the packing house firm in 1872. After the death of his father he became vice president and general manager of the Kansas City branch, and upon the death in 1898 of S. R. Armour, he succeeded to the presidency. He was in the director's hall of a dozen Kansas City concerns.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 28.—Capt. Torralba, of the Spanish forces, from Boaca del Toro, reports that the fight fought on September 12 and 13 is claimed by the Colombian troops, but the loss was heavy on both sides. When the Spaniards left there were not more than 25 Colombian troops in Boaca. About 300 insurgents were on both sides, but not making no serious demonstration.

From another source it is learned that the insurgents get their supplies from the Chinese merchants. The sign firms experience trouble in getting messages to and from their agencies, some of the latter being in the hands of the insurgents.

LOS THEIR LIVES.

Thirteen Prospectors Drowned in a Camp While Asleep in a Dry Ravine in Texas.

A CLOUDBUST CAUSED A BIG FLOOD.

A Volume of Water Twelve Feet High Came Down the Channel and Washed Over the Men.

Only Six Bodies Have Been Recovered and It is Thought the Remaining Ones Were Washed Into the Rio Grande.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 28.—News has just been received of a terrible disaster that occurred in Presidio county, near the Rio Grande river, on the 25th instant, 13 men who were prospecting for cinabar losing their lives in a flood caused by a water-spout or cloudbust.

The following are the names of the dead:

The men were in two parties, camped one mile apart in a dry ravine known as Alamito creek, in which there had been no water for 15 months on account of drought.

The men were asleep at 1 o'clock, when there was a cloudbust several miles up the ravine. A volume of water 20 feet high washed down the channel of the ravine and swept over the men in the two camps before they were aware of their danger. All were drowned, and up to this time the bodies of the men have been recovered.

The Alamito empties into the Rio Grande river not far from where the fatality occurred, and it is more than probable that the other seven bodies have been swept into that stream.

UNPRECEDENTED RAINS.

The Rice Planters on the Savannah River Suffer Heavy Damage From High Water.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 28.—Rice planters on the Savannah river suffered heavy damage from high water and still further destruction is anticipated. Five and six days ago there were almost unprecedented rains up the river from Augusta westward, and the freshest reached the rice section Friday, and was met by an immense volume of tide water piled up in the river by a double gale at Tybee. As a consequence many of the plantations are flooded and the cut rice is ruined. The water is still rising and the wind blowing. The worst effect reports from the West India storm will probably grow strong here. Planters, therefore, look for many of the dykes to go.

THE SOUTH SEA STORM.

High Tides Flooded Several Streets in Charleston, S. C., to a Depth of Three Feet.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 28.—Although the South sea storm, which has been coming up the coast for two days, did not strike this city, the wind here blew at the rate of 35 miles an hour, and during the day the high tides flooded several streets to a depth of three feet. All shipping was detained in port as a precautionary measure. The Clyde Line Apache, from Jacksonville, arrived here Friday night with many hours behind time. No damage to vessels has been reported.

PRESIDENT CASTRO.

It is Asserted That He Will Decline War on Colombia at the End of the Month.

Willamstad, Island of Curacao, Sept. 28, via Haytian Cable.—It is again asserted in well-informed circles at Caracas that President Castro will declare war on Colombia at the end of the month. The Venezuelan government is without financial resources, and will shortly use the method of South American dictators and proceed to raise funds by force. Lack of confidence in the government is manifested everywhere in Venezuela.

It Overturned and Five Valuable Hare Horses Were Killed—Several Persons Injured.

Plymouth, Mich., Sept. 28.—A palace horse car en route to the Grand Fort Erie was shunted upon a siding on the Pere Marquette road. It overturned, killing two valuable race horses, and injuring several others, so that they had to be killed. The rest of the animals in the car were cut up badly.

PROMISES TO BE LIVED.

The Managers of the Opera-house will offer for its next attraction, on Monday evening next, "A Thoroughbred Tramp," a crisp, new sensational comedy, replete with the slang, crime and adventures of the typical hobo. T. Rush Thompson is the personage around whom the entire action of the play revolves. True to his promise, Thompson is a very rapid individual and causes the action to revolve at a pace that leaves no spare room for a dull moment during the entire two hours and a half consumed in the performance.

Several sensational scenic effects are introduced, prominent among them being a mad race between a woman on horseback and a flying express train, the latter being a close second.

WHERE HAD IT BEEN?

A Crisp New Bill on the National Bank of Maysville.

$5

A few days ago there bobbed up in a business transaction a crisp $5 bill on the "National Bank of Maysville," signed by "Joseph Wallingford, President," and "James A. Johnson, Cashier," both of whom are dead.

This was the first National Bank established in this city, and it was located on the present site of Colonel E. A. Robinson's Limestone Cigar Factory.

The note bore date of September 1st, 1871; and though the Bank went out of existence nearly thirty years ago, its notes are just as good as gold.

This is one of the beauties of the National Banking system—its notes are good always and forever, no matter what becomes of the Bank or its officers.

Mr. William Hinton will, on his return from the Queen City, proceed to Hampton Normal and Industrial Institute, Virginia, to learn a trade.

There is more cancer in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors prescribed a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven, however, that a constitutional disease, and there are two constitutional diseases, that cause cancer, is a curable disease, and that it can be cured by the use of the medicine known as "F. J. Cheney's Cancer Cure." It is sold by Druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.
